

Monster Math!

Making 10 Game

This game is played like the game of memory. Students will place the monster cards face down. They will take turns turning over two monster cards. If the two cards add up to ten, they keep them. When all the cards have been matched the game ends. The student with the most cards is the winner.

